

LOW AND NO ALCOHOL SPIRITS AND READY-TO-DRINK

From non-alcoholic red vermouth on the rocks to a can of 0% gin & tonic, the “zero booze” products have recently popped up everywhere and have established themselves as a growing staple in some of our drinking habits. Think of dry-January...not on anyone’s radar a few years ago, is now a trend here to stay and spreading to February and beyond! Such an interesting group with many emerging categories, the excitement of drinking a cocktail without the hangover is an idea many are finding attractive. The next time you make a Moscow Mule, think of making it with a non-alcoholic spirit or a mix and drink a couple more!. Will Trow
