

HAZY AND NEIPA

Call it Hazy, Juicy, New England or something else, the NEIPA (New England IPA) came out of Vermont about a dozen years ago to become a craft brewing juggernaut. Looking like your favourite breakfast juice, the colours range from light yellow to orange, with a natural cloudy appearance. Less hop forward than regular IPAs, they often evoke juicy and tropical flavours with only a hint of bitterness, but may still sneak above 6% ABV. Dave Nuttall
