

WITS, WHEATS, AND HEFEWEIZEN

Wits, Wheats, Hefe- Bananas, cloves, citrus, Oh MY! I have clear recollections 20 years ago of trying my first wit beer, a Kronenburg Blanc, and have been hooked ever since. The bartender asked if I could taste the banana and my mind was officially blown. This was not the usual Saskatchewan beer that I was used to drinking. Wits, Wheats, and Hefeweizens are all different styles yet share the common characteristic of being loaded with wheat forward deliciousness. Rachel Drinkle

BEST IN CLASS

APEX PREDATOR
DISTANT HOWL
HEFEWEIZEN
Alberta, Canada
$15-17 (4-PACK CANS)
CSPC 869571

JUDGES SELECTION

Grizzly Paw
Grassi Lakes
Hefeweizen
Alberta, Canada
$15-17
(4-pack cans)
CSPC 816039

Bow River
Brewing
Athabasca Wit
Alberta, Canada
$16-18
(6-pack cans)
CSPC 816962

Buffalo 9
Brewing Dear
Aunt Emma
Wheat Ale
Alberta, Canada
$18-19
(4-pack cans)
CSPC 872871

Brewsters
Farmer's Tan
Belgian White
Alberta, Canada
$16-18
(6-pack cans)
CSPC 804341

Rapid Ascent
Incline Series
Hefeweizen
Alberta, Canada
$17-19
(4-pack cans)
CSPC 865591

Brauerei Fahr
Hoppy Hefe
Alberta, Canada
$16-18
(6-pack cans)
CSPC 828628

PINOT GRIS/ GRIGIO

A familiar and classic variety, pinot gris has a lot to offer. This grape can thrive in many countries, creating unique styles. While we often see our best examples from Northern Italy and Alsace, the Okanagan is showing great promise and wines were rated highly this year. These wines find the balance between rich, ripe fruit, and freshness. Devin Rigaux

BEST IN CLASS

WILD GOOSE
VINEYARDS 2021
PINOT GRIS
Okanagan Valley
British Columbia
$25-27 CSPC 536227

JUDGES SELECTION

Freixenet Italian Pinot Grigio
Garda, Italy
$20-24 CSPC 793214

Kris 2021 Pinot Grigio Delle Venezie
Friuli-Venezia, Italy
$21-23 CSPC 716302

Zaccagnini 2020 Pinot Grigio
Chieti, Italy
$22-24 CSPC 781328

Hillside Winery 2020 Heritage Pinot Gris
Naramata Bench, British Columbia
$28-32 CSPC 536219

