

WHITE SINGLE VARIETALS

Some of my favourite grapes appear in the White Single Varietals category, but they may not be familiar to everyone. To see an inzolia taking top spot makes me want to rush out and buy it as it's known primarily as the main varietal of the fortified Marsala wines of Western Sicily. My mouth is watering at the thought of these South African chenin blancs, pecorino and verdicchio from the east of Italy, grüner veltliner, viognier... all such terrific food wines now we might not be spending much time on our patios! Linda Garson
